NACS would like to thank the NACS Global Supplier Council for their support of the industry's international activities.

These companies have contributed their global knowledge and assistance in exchange for worldwide retail connections and first-rate educational opportunities. Their participation enables us to provide world-class events like the NACS Global Forum and aids us in offering international research and benchmarking statistics.

About NACS Global Supplier Council Membership:

The Global Supplier Council (GSC) membership provides unique benefits to supplier companies that do business globally. The key benefits of GSC include exclusive supplier participation in NACS Global Forums, networking with senior management of progressive retailers from the US and abroad, brand exposure, access to global information and education, and the ability to contribute towards global best practices. For more information about becoming a Global Supplier Council Member, contact Matt Danzig at (703) 518-4281 or mdanzig@nacsonline.com.
